September 25-October 10, 2024

Xinjiang Autonomous Region, China

INVITATION

Dear Boxing Family Members,

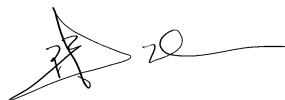

To promote the international exchange of sports culture, Chinese Boxing Federation will host the 2nd “Belt and Road” International Boxing Festival in Xinjiang Autonomous Region, China from September 25 to October 10, 2024. A series of activities will be organized to celebrate Boxing festival including international training camp, competition, forum, RJ and coach seminars.

With this regard, it is a great pleasure to invite your Association, sport school or club to participate in the international training camp and competition for Youth boxers.

Xinjiang Autonomous Region is in the western part of China which is famous for its beautiful natural environment and diverse ethnic customs. Xinjiang is in the core area of the Belt and Road Economic Belt Boxing which is the China’ western gate facing Central Asia, West Asia and South Asia. Boxing is one of the most popular and beloved sports in Xinjiang. We believe the International Boxing Festival bringing together talented young athletes from across the world will promote the grassroot development of boxing in China and the World, foster the culture exchange of the world.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Xinjiang. Wish this journey will leave a fantastic experience and good memory.

Yours Sincerely,

Chen Liren
President
Chinese Boxing Federation
