Excellency,

I extend my heartfelt congratulations on your election as President of the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) during the 44th General Assembly. I wish you great success as you prepare to take on the responsibilities and challenges of this esteemed position.

As you begin your new role, please know that the Asian Boxing Confederation and its members are committed to maintaining a strong friendship and supportive relationship with the OCA and its athletes.

I look forward to working closely with you to strengthen the ties between our organizations and to collaborate on advancing our shared goals and values across the region.

On behalf of the entire Asian Boxing Family, I wish you success in your new role and I am confident that under your leadership, the Olympic spirit will continue to thrive in our region.

Sincerely,

PICHAJ CHUNHAVAJIRA
President
